Subject: Invitation to attend 42nd Annual National Conference of National Medicos Organisation NMOCON 2023 at AIIMS Kalyani.

Sir,

Greetings from organizing team of NMOCON 23, Kolkata!

It is our privilege to invite students, junior residents, Senior residents and faculty members of your esteemed institution to attend 42nd Annual National Conference of National Medicos Organisation NMOCON 2023 at AIIMS Kalyani on 13-14th May 2023 and 70 kms cycle yatra on 11th May reflecting awareness about health for all.

The conference will be multi-specialty and include scientific sessions on various aspects of modern science and topics of significance to medical/dental students and doctors.

Theme of the conference is Jan Gan Man – Our Health Our Nature Our Culture. Since this conference also includes events of National integration by MBBS & Dental students like Medical Debate, Quiz, Rangoli, and ethical dance competitions, we expect a robust representation from 'The crown of our Nation – Kashmir'.

We shall be highly obliged if you kindly send interested student/doctors for participation.

Thanking you
Regards

Namaskar,

National Medicos Organisation (NMO) is a unique organisation of doctors and medical & Dental students of modern (Allopathic) Medical and Dental Science, with a wide reach all over Bharat. NMO is a purely apolitical, non-trade union, nationalist, service-oriented man making organisation.

Since its inception in 1977, NMO has remained in the front line in the arena of humanitarian services in calamities like Bhopal gas tragedy, cyclones in Andhra Pradesh, Drought in Banas kantha, Surat plague, Latur earthquake, Tsunami in South India, Amphan in West Bengal, Flood relief in Kashmir, Kerala Assam, and Nepal Earthquake etc.

The theme of the conference is "स्वच्छ मनः स्वच्छ मूल्य - Our Health Our Nature Our Culture - स्वच्छ स भवति स्वच्छि स्वच्छि मनुष्य" - As evident from the theme, this conference will include several brain storming sessions among the best of medical brains of the country as well as budding doctors so as to evolve a structured Vision for developing a health care system in our country

NMO organises a national conference of Doctors and Medical & Dental Students from all over the country every year, with number of participation ranging from 2000 to 3000. In this lineage national conference of 2023 is going to be held at AIIMS Kalyani, West Bengal, India
