D.O. No. U-11026/1/2022-UGMEB/
Dated the 14th Oct 2022

As you are aware that Undergraduate Medical Education Board is entrusted with the responsibilities to maintain the standards of medical education at undergraduate level.

The revised Competency Based Undergraduate Curriculum for MBBS students have been prepared by UGMEB with a view to provide a sound base and balanced approach among medical students with the introduction of foundation course, such as Family Adoption Programme, Yoga, meditation, Local Language adaptation and skills. Clinical exposure, AETCOM module, Problem based learning, Domain wise education and exposure, developing interest in basic research are designed to bring a positive impact and enhancement in job opportunities to young medical graduates/practitioners.

Accordingly, the academic calendar applicable to the MBBS batch scheduled in November, 2022 is finalised and uploaded on NMC's website with the approval of Chairman, NMC. It is implied that this academic calendar gives an unconditional freedom to the concerned universities and medical colleges to plan the academic sessions.

During the Video conference with all of you, it was emphasised to provide wider exposure and coverage to quality education in the field of medicine. Therefore, UGMEB has decided to develop a national repository of best teaching faculties in medical colleges in the country. These selected best teaching faculties shall be invited by the Commission to impart lecture for students from all colleges of the country and the same shall be telecast from National Medical Commission. The selected faculties shall also be awarded appropriately.

UGMEB hereby invites the application(s) from all the medical colleges/institutes established prior to the year 2001 and with continuous track record of uninterrupted batches till date, for selection of subject-wise (as per MSR 2020) best teaching faculty in the country. Application must reach UGMEB through email (ugmeb@nmc.org.in) latest by 15th Nov 2022 in the prescribed format annexed herewith.

This information may also please displayed on the notice board of the colleges. The class representative from amongst the students may also send the same information in the form of feedback separately. Video recording should NOT be sent by students. However they must mention the reason for selecting the teacher as the best teacher.

With regards,

Encl: As above.
